THE HAIRY DOG CLOSING SUNDAYS

Starting from this Sunday (2nd November) we'll be closing on Sundays for the foreseeable future.

If there's a show scheduled, we'll absolutely be open for that - don't panic! Once the performance wraps up and curfew arrives though, we'll kindly ask everyone to head off so we can clear up, lock up and let the place rest.

This short Sunday break will give us the chance to show some extra love to our gig room, main bar and games room and have them all looking fresher. We'll let you all know when Sundays are back to the usual!

Thanks so much for your continued understanding and support.
